WHAT good IS AUTHORITY?

OCTOBER 22 • 6 PM

Victor Lee Austin, author of a noted book on the nature of authority, will explore how authority is (and isn't) good in the actual working-out of our lives, and the goodness (and the limits) of authority in the concrete realities of life.

A LECTURE FOLLOWED BY Q&A FROM OUR DISTINGUISHED DIOCESAN THEOLOGIAN IN RESIDENCE,
THE REV. CANON VICTOR LEE AUSTIN, PH. D.

WINE AND CHEESE RECEPTION TO FOLLOW.

Join us for a traditional and contemplative Choral Evensong at 5 pm in our sacred space, with readings from Scripture, chanted prayers, and music from our rich Anglican heritage, with candlelight and incense.
