CONSTITUTION OF THE DIOCESE OF DALLAS

PREAMBLE

We, the Clergy and Laity resident in that portion of the State of Texas constituting what is known as the Episcopal Diocese of Dallas, a diocese within the province of the Episcopal Church in the United States of America, which is a constituent member of the Anglican Communion -- a Fellowship within the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church, of those duly constituted Dioceses, Provinces, and regional Churches in communion with the See of Canterbury, upholding and propagating the historic Faith and Order as set forth in the Book of Common Prayer -- do hereby ordain and establish the following Constitution:

ARTICLE 1

AUTHORITY OF GENERAL CONVENTION

The Church in this Diocese accedes to the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church in the United States of America and recognizes the authority of the General Convention of said Church.

The foregoing accession and recognition are expressly premised on the Episcopal Church in the United States of America being and at all times remaining a full, constituent member of the Anglican Communion as set forth in the Preamble of the Constitution of the said Church, "a Fellowship within the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church, of those duly constituted Dioceses, Provinces, and regional Churches in the communion with the See of Canterbury, upholding and propagating the historic Faith and Order as set forth in the Book of Common Prayer." In the event that such premise shall no longer be applicable in whole or in part to the Episcopal Church in the United States of America, such accession and recognition may be revoked, limited, or otherwise amended by this Diocese immediately, notwithstanding Article 17, by a concurrent two-thirds vote of both orders at any Annual or Special Convention.

Moreover, the foregoing accession and recognition shall in no way be deemed to prevent or limit this Diocese from disassociating (as the word is used in Title IV, 3.21 b) itself from any actions of the General Convention by concurrent majority vote of both orders at any Annual or Special Convention.

ARTICLE 2

MEMBERS OF CONVENTION

The Diocese of Dallas entrusts its legislation to a Convention to consist as follows: First, of the Bishop, when there be one; of the Bishop Coadjutor, when there be one; of the Suffragan Bishops, if there be any; Second, of all members of the Clergy canonically resident in the Diocese, and not under Ecclesiastical discipline, and who have not in contemplation of removal from this Diocese, applied for their letters dimissory; and, Third, of Lay Delegates chosen by and representing the several Parishes and Missions of this Diocese. Such Lay Delegates and their Alternates shall be elected by the Congregations of their respective Parishes and Missions at the Annual Parish Meeting, and shall hold office until their successors are elected. The Rectors of Parishes and Vicars of Missions shall have authority to fill such vacancies as may occur in the list of Alternate Lay Delegates between the time of such election and any meetings of the Convention. Lay Delegates shall be confirmed persons in good standing and at least eighteen (18) years of age.

Every Parish and Mission in union with the Convention shall be entitled to Lay Delegates as defined by Canon 2 (MEMBERS OF THE CONVENTION) of the Diocese of Dallas.

ARTICLE 3
ANNUAL CONVENTION

There shall be an Annual Convention of the Diocese held at a place and time designated by the Bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee. The time and place of the next Annual Convention shall be announced at each Annual Convention prior to its adjournment. In the event that a change in the time and/or place of an Annual Convention is determined by the Bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee, to be necessary or advisable, notice of such change shall be given to each Parish and Mission in union with the Convention at least thirty (30) days prior to such meeting.

ARTICLE 4
SPECIAL MEETINGS OF CONVENTION

The Bishop, or a majority of all members of the Standing Committee, may call a special meeting of the Convention upon thirty (30) days notice thereof.

When there is no Bishop, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a special meeting of the Convention, giving thirty (30) days notice thereof. At any special meeting of the Convention, the business to be transacted shall be specified in the call, and no business shall be transacted except that so specified.

ARTICLE 5
QUORUM

At any meeting of the Convention of this Diocese a quorum necessary to transact business shall consist of one-third of the members of the Clergy entitled to seats therein, and the Lay Delegates from one-third of the Parishes and Missions in union with the Convention; but a smaller number shall have the power to adjourn from day to day until a quorum is obtained. If a quorum has been determined to exist and the business of the Convention has commenced, such business may continue to be transacted, even though less than a quorum actually remain present.

ARTICLE 6
PERMANENT OFFICERS OF THE DIOCESE

The permanent officers of the Diocese shall be: the Bishop of the Diocese; and the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one; the Suffragan Bishop or Bishops, if there be any; a Standing Committee; a Secretary; a Treasurer; a Chancellor; and a Registrar. All such officers who are members of the Clergy shall be canonically resident in the Diocese, and Lay Officers shall be confirmed persons in good standing of a Parish or Mission of the Diocese.

Any such officers, who are not members of the Convention, shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of members, except the right of voting. If any officer, except a member of the Standing Committee, die or become incapable of acting, the duties of such officer shall be discharged, until the next succeeding Convention, by someone appointed by the Bishop and confirmed by the Standing Committee. The term of office of all officers, unless otherwise provided for either by this Constitution or by Canon, shall be for one year or until their successors are elected.

ARTICLE 7
PRESIDENT OF CONVENTION

At every meeting of the Convention, the Bishop shall be presiding officer; or in the event of the absence or inability to act of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one; the Suffragan Bishops, if there be any, in order of seniority; or if there be none, the president of the Standing Committee shall be presiding officer and, if the president of the Standing Committee shall be unavailable to serve for any reason, a clerical member of the Standing Committee shall be designated to serve by the Standing Committee. The presiding officer shall not participate in debate on any question coming before the Convention, nor in any election. The presiding officer, however, may express his views to the Convention upon any subject after debate thereon has been closed and before the vote is taken. The presiding officer may vote upon any matter and in any election if the vote is taken by ballot or if his vote will affect the result.

ARTICLE 8
RULES OF CONVENTION

At every meeting of the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate as one body, and each member of the Clergy present and each Lay Delegate present shall be entitled to one vote. Unless, a vote by orders is determined or required or otherwise provided by the Constitution and or Canons, a majority of the aggregate votes shall be decisive. Except where the Constitution or Canons require two-thirds vote, whenever a vote by orders is determined or required or otherwise provided, a concurrent majority in both orders shall be necessary. Upon demand of any seven members of the Convention, the vote shall be taken by orders.

The Convention may adopt such reasonable rules of procedure as it may determine to be appropriate to regulate and expedite the orderly disposition of the business of such Convention, including the election of officers or persons to any office or position. Any method of voting prescribed by rules of procedure shall not apply to the election of a Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan Bishop.

ARTICLE 9
CONGREGATIONS IN UNION WITH CONVENTION

Every Parish and Mission in this Diocese in existence at the time of the organization of the Diocese and every Parish and Mission which shall have been created and admitted in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese shall be deemed to be in union with and entitled to representation in the Convention of the Diocese, unless deprived of such right either through suspension or dissolution.

If a Parish or Mission shall fail to pay its assessment as levied by the Convention, it may be suspended from the right of representation in the Convention by a concurrent majority of both orders.

With the consent of the Bishop, any Parish or Mission which shall fail to conform with requirements prescribed by Canon or special resolution may be wholly dissolved by a concurrent two-thirds vote of both orders. Such action can be taken only at an Annual Convention.

ARTICLE 10
STANDING COMMITTEE

The Standing Committee shall consist of three Priests entitled to seats in the Diocesan Convention and three Lay persons who shall be confirmed persons of the Church in good standing in this Diocese, and who shall possess such other qualifications as may be prescribed by Canon.

When there is a Bishop in charge of the Diocese, the Standing Committee shall be his Council of Advice. If there be no Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor or Suffragan Bishop canonically authorized to act, the Standing Committee shall be the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese.

The members of the Standing Committee shall be elected by ballot, by a concurrent vote of a majority of each order, at an Annual Convention, and their term of office shall be for three years, or until their successors are elected. At each Annual Convention, one Clerical and one Lay member of the Standing Committee shall be elected.

Vacancies occurring prior to the expiration of the term of any member of this committee shall be filled by the vote of a majority of the remaining members of the Standing Committee, and the person so elected shall fill out the unexpired term of the member in whose stead such person was elected.

No one shall be eligible to re-election as a member of the Standing Committee during the year in which such member's term of office expires, but election to an unexpired term shall not constitute a bar to eligibility.

The Standing Committee shall keep a record of all its official acts and shall make a report of the same to the Convention.

ARTICLE 11
DEPUTIES TO GENERAL CONVENTION

The Annual Convention in the second year preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention shall elect by ballot four (4) Priests or Deacons and four (4) Lay persons to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention, a concurrent vote of a majority of both orders being necessary to elect. Following the election of the last Deputy chosen, the floor shall be opened for nomination of Alternate Deputies in accordance with the Rules of Procedure and one (1) ballot shall be taken (unless further voting shall be necessary because of a tie) upon those then nominated and those who had been nominated as Deputies (including those who withdrew), and the four (4) in each order receiving the most votes (both orders voting together) shall be declared elected as Alternate Deputies. Deputies and Alternates shall take office immediately upon election and shall hold office until their successors are chosen.

ARTICLE 12
PRINCIPLE OF THE CATHEDRAL SYSTEM

Section 1

- (a) The principle of organization underlying the Cathedral system (inaugurated in the Missionary District of Northern Texas) is approved by the Church in this Diocese.
- (b) The principle thus approved consists in a practical recognition of the fact that the Bishop is the center of unity of all his jurisdiction, and his Cathedral is the symbol of that unity and an instrument for the diffusion of his influence throughout the Diocese. While for the more convenient administration of his office, the Bishop has his seat of office in his Cathedral Church at the See City or Capitol of his Diocese, he nevertheless, by virtue of his office, has inherent rights at all times and in every Parish, Mission and Congregation within the Diocese, he being the Chief Pastor of all the people in the Diocese.

- (c) The Bishop shall be consulted in the order of the ritual of the Cathedral for Diocesan services, may preach when he may so desire, and may use the Church for such official purposes as to him may seem fitting, but he shall not be required to perform pastoral duty.
- (d) The City of Dallas is hereby declared to be the See City of this Diocese, and the Parish Church of Saint Matthew is hereby recognized as the Bishop's Cathedral.
- (e) The legislation of this Diocese shall be in harmony with, and in furtherance of, the Cathedral system, as thus understood and defined.

Section 2

- (a) The governing body of the Cathedral, as such, is a Cathedral Chapter, consisting of the Bishop, the Dean, Wardens and Vestry of the Cathedral Parish, and three members-at-large, who shall be communicants of the Church in this Diocese, appointed by the Bishop. The Bishop shall be President, and the Dean Vice-President of the Cathedral Chapter, and a majority of its members shall constitute a quorum. It may adopt by-laws not inconsistent with the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention or of this Diocese.
- (b) The three at-large members shall serve as follows: one for one year; one for two years; and one for three years. Thereafter, the Bishop shall appoint one at-large member annually to serve on the Cathedral Chapter for a three-year term. No members shall be eligible for re-appointment until one year has elapsed after the completion of such member's term. The Bishop shall appoint a person to fill an unexpired term in the at-large membership.
- (c) When a vacancy occurs in the Rectorship of Saint Matthew, the Bishop shall nominate three presbyters of this Church, of whom the Vestry of Saint Matthew may elect one by a two-thirds majority vote. Should it fail to elect any of the three nominated, the Bishop shall nominate three other nominees (no more than one of which shall be a previous nominee), of whom the Vestry may elect one by a two-thirds majority vote; and such procedure shall be followed until there is an election. When a Rector is elected, he shall then be installed as Dean and Rector of the Cathedral Church of Saint Matthew.

Section 3 The Dean shall be the executive officer of the Cathedral in charge of services and the administration of the Cathedral and shall have charge of the Cathedral congregation. He shall preside at meetings of the Cathedral Vestry and Parish meetings.

Section 4 Except as provided in this Canon, the Cathedral Church shall be a Parish Church with the usual Parish organizations. The Rector and Vestry shall have the customary canonical rights and duties of a Parish Rector and Vestry.

Section 5 The Bishop may appoint honorary Canons of the Cathedral. Honorary Canons shall be members of the Cathedral Chapter, ex-officio, without voting privileges. The Dean and Vestry shall elect Cathedral residentiary Canons with the Bishop's approval.

ARTICLE 13

TITLE TO CHURCH PROPERTY

The title to all real property acquired for the use of the Church in this Diocese, which includes all Parishes, Missions and Diocesan Institutions, shall be held in the name of “Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Dallas” (known as the “Diocesan Corporation”), pursuant to, and in all ways administered, dealt with, and disposed of as specified in the Canons of the Diocese.

ARTICLE 14

POWER TO LEVY ASSESSMENTS

The Convention of this Diocese shall have power, either by Canon or by special resolution, to raise money by assessment or other means upon the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese; and the manner of fixing such assessment upon the various Parishes and Missions may either be specified by Canon or by a resolution of the Convention.

The Convention may by Canon prescribe such regulations and penalties as it may deem expedient to secure the prompt payment of assessments.

ARTICLE 15

FUND FOR THE ENDOWMENT OF THE EPISCOPATE

There shall be a Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate which shall be managed by the Board of Trustees of the Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Dallas.

They shall be entrusted with the investment and management of the said Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate. Securities purchased by the Trustees in their capacity as such may be registered in the names of the Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Dallas. They shall make an annual report of the affairs of the said Fund to the Annual Convention.

After paying the necessary expenses incident to the management of this Fund, such portion of this Fund and the earnings thereof, as determined by the Board of Trustees (not to take more from the principal than seven percent of its value at the beginning of the year), shall be applied annually toward the compensation of the Bishop of this Diocese, and of the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and of the Suffragan Bishops, if there be any, or for other expenses of the Office of the Bishop or general Diocesan purposes.

ARTICLE 16

ELECTION OF A BISHOP, BISHOP COADJUTOR OR SUFFRAGAN BISHOP

The election of a Bishop, a Bishop Coadjutor, or a Suffragan Bishop for this Diocese shall take place at the regular meeting of the Convention, or at a special meeting of the Convention called for that purpose. In the election, the vote shall be by ballot and by orders, and concurrent majority of the two orders shall be necessary to a choice if two-thirds of all the Clergy entitled to vote, who have their principal residence within the Diocese and whose attendance at the Convention has not been excused by the Bishop or the acting Ecclesiastical authority due to infirmity or other good cause and Lay Delegates from two-thirds of the Parishes and Missions entitled to representation are present at the Convention; otherwise, two-thirds of the votes of each order voting shall be necessary to a choice. In any event, the election may not occur unless a quorum has been determined to exist.

ARTICLE 17

ALTERATIONS AND AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

The Constitution of this Diocese may be altered or amended as follows: A proposal for an alteration or an amendment shall be filed in writing with the Secretary of the Convention not less than sixty (60) days before the meeting of an Annual Convention. The Secretary shall, not less than forty-five (45) days before the meeting of the Convention, deliver copies of all proposed alterations or amendments to the Constitution to the Chair of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, consisting of at least two (2) members of the Clergy and two (2) Lay persons. The Committee shall report thereon to the Convention. No other alteration or amendment to the Constitution shall be considered at that meeting except by unanimous consent of the Convention. Such proposed alteration or amendment shall be presented in writing at the meeting of the Convention. Where any amendment or alteration to the Constitution has been so proposed and referred to the Committee, amendments thereto may be made from the floor of the Convention if, within the judgment of the presiding officer of the Convention, such amendments are germane to the pending amendment or alteration. If the proposal, together with any amendments pertinent thereto, receive a two-thirds vote of the Convention, it shall be printed in the Journal and shall lay over until the next Annual Convention, and if then approved by a concurrent two-thirds of the vote of both orders, the Constitution shall be altered or amended accordingly, and such alteration or amendment shall take effect thirty (30) days after the adjournment of the Convention.

ARTICLE 18

CANONS

Canons not inconsistent with this Constitution, or the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention, may be adopted, altered, amended or repealed at any Annual Convention by a two-thirds vote of the Convention; provided that no new Canon and no alteration, amendment or repeal of an existing Canon shall be adopted unless the same shall have been filed in writing with the Secretary of the Convention not less than sixty (60) days before the meeting of the Convention; and provided further that a new canon or an alteration, amendment or repeal of an existing Canon that is inconsistent with Title IV of the Canons of the General Convention may be adopted at any Annual Convention by a concurrent majority vote of both orders.

INTERPRETATION
